

Balladeer

Theme

Annor: Commercial

Theme

Annor: Good evening this is your Smith Balladeer bringing you, as we told you last week, a program of folk music from the countries of Europe. Let's begin in England, the first country of Europe that we see as we come across the Atlantic. Only for the last two weeks, you have been hearing English folk music, so this week, for our first number, we are going to play a Welsh dance called simply, The Welsh Reel

Music: The Welsh Reel

Annor: Because we have already heard so much English music, The Welsh Reel ~~####~~ will be the only representative of English music. Crossing the channel, we land in France, only weland specifically in Brittany, where we hear a song of that country that tells the story of the poor Labourer.

Music: Le Pauvre Laboureur

Annor: We are just as anxious as the French to leave the provinces, and find our way to Paris. All America has found its way to Paris through the songs of Edith Piaf, who ~~we will hear sing for us~~ brings to us now, an appealing picture of spring and Les Amants de Paris.

Music: Paris is the home of the concert and the dance hall, it is the adopted home of le jazz hot, but for true folk music, we must go again to the provinces, this time we go to the south, and there along the rivers and coast of France we find this unhappy song of the sailor's return. Remaldo Hahn sings Le Retour du Marin.

Music: Le Retour du Marin

Annor: While we are still down in the south, let's just take a short hop across the Pyrenees and land in Spain just in time to hear a group of street singers serenading a fair senorita.

Music: Mananitas Tapatias

Annor: Crossing over France in a rush this time we come into a Germany as we have always imagined it. The Germany which was light and gay and where we

There

Answer: Good evening

There

Answer: Good evening this is your British Salisbury bringing you, as we said you last week, a program of air news from the countries of Europe. Let's begin in England, the first country of Europe that we see as we come across the Atlantic. Only for the last two weeks, you have a an exciting British music, so this week, for our first night, we are going to play a British called simply, The Welsh Ball

Welsh: The Welsh Ball

Answer: Because we have already had an idea of the music, The Welsh Ball because it is the only one that is called in English. Crossing the channel we find in France, only a few days ago, in Brittany, where we have a song of the Bretons, a very old song of the Bretons.

Welsh: The Bretons

Answer: We are now in Brittany, we are going to leave the Bretons, and find our way to Paris. All countries that have the way to Paris through the center of France, we will have a very good view of the country of France and the Bretons of Paris.

Welsh: Paris is the heart of the country and the heart of the Bretons and of the Bretons, but now we have the Bretons, we must go again to the Bretons this time we go to the south, and find the Bretons and the Bretons of France we find this country of the Bretons, the Bretons of France.

Welsh: The Bretons

Welsh: The Bretons of France

Answer: We are still in the south, let's just take a short trip the Bretons and find in Spain just in time to hear a group of Bretons representing a Breton

Welsh: Bretons of France

Answer: Crossing over France in a train this time we come into a Germany have always imagined it. This Germany which was light and gay and where